

Announcement

Good morning/afternoon,

We have a great new resource available for you. EWTN is offering a free online learning series based on Mother Angelica's book In His Sandals and led by EWTN Chaplain, Fr. Joseph Mary Wolfe.

It is a six-part online book study with videos and a downloadable digital study guide, all available at your own pace. You can participate on your computer or via the EWTN Learning app.

In His Sandals is a short, but powerful, book that invites you to spend time with our Savior, Jesus Christ, get to know Him better, let Him heal your wounds, and start living the life He wants for you.

To sign up, go to ewtn.com/WalkWithJesus.

You can also look at the ad in the bulletin to find more information.
